MAISHA HIV AND AIDS CONFERENCE 2017

Conference Dates: 28th – 31st May, 2017

TERMS OF REFERENCE FOR CONFERENCE MANAGER

MAY 2017

1. BACKGROUND

The National AIDS Control Council (NACC) is in the process of organizing for the 4th Maisha HIV & AIDS Conference. The theme for this year's conference is 'Translating the Science to End new HIV infections in Kenya: Perspectives, Practices and Lessons' and is scheduled to take place between May 28 and 31, 2017. The Venue of the Conference is expected to be Hilton Hotel in Nairobi. The conference is expected to be attended by a total of about seven hundred (700) participants.

2. CONFERENCE OBJECTIVES

The objectives of the Maisha HIV and AIDS Conference 2017 include:

- To share research findings, perspectives, best practices and lessons learnt in the Kenyan HIV response.
- To deliberate most effective and efficient options to end new HIV infections for epidemic control.
- To provide an advocacy forum to strengthen research, policy and practice connections and link policy decision makers with research stakeholders, programmers, communities and donors at county and national level.
- To provide a forum for recognition of world-renowned Kenyan researchers as well build the capacity of local early-career investigators.

3. STRUCTURE OF THE CONFERENCE

The Conference will involve a pre-conference symposium, to be held between May 28 and 29, 2017, which will entail Satellite Workshops/Symposia; an Opening Ceremony on May 30, 2017 and a Closing/Award Ceremony on May 31, 2017. The structure of the conference involves (a) Abstract Driven Sessions, (b) Moderated Discussions, (c) Expert Panel Discussions and (d) Satellite Sessions taking place concurrently in different venues/rooms guided by the five (5) Thematic Tracks of the Conference (See Draft Programme in the Annex below for details), It is expected that there will be proper and prompt labelling and flow of programmes in the various venues/rooms. The Guiding Thematic Tracks are:

- Track A: Emerging HIV Prevention Issues
- Track B: HIV Treatment and Care
- Track C: Community and Health Systems
- Track D: National and County Leadership in the HIV Response
- Track E: HIV in the Post-2015 Global Agenda

In addition, about thirty two (32) posters presentations will be made between May 30 and 31, 2017. These posters will be set up at the hotel lobby on the evening of May 29, 2017 ready for presentation. Presenters will be required to stand by their posters at designated times during tea and lunch breaks. Further details may be obtained from the Concept Note on the Conference.

4. JUSTIFICATION FOR A CONFERENCE MANAGER

The planning process for the Maisha Conference 2017 has begun in earnest and entails both technical and logistical processes. The NACC has set up several committees to oversee various technical aspects of this planning process. NACC has also set up a functional Secretariat to facilitate day-to-day coordination of logistics. However, there is need to enhance the capacity to handle some aspects of planning and delivery of the conference. There is therefore, need to outsource these services through engagement of an experienced Conference Manager. The Conference Manager will be expected to provide technical and logistical support to the Maisha HIV and AIDS Conference 2017 under the supervision of the Planning Committee Chair.

5. KEY TASKS AND DELIVERABLES FOR THE CONFERENCE MANAGER

The Key Tasks and Deliverables will be at 3 time points: prior to the conference, during and after the conference.

a. BEFORE THE CONFERENCE

Registration

- Set up a system that will directly link up with the existing/ongoing NACC online database system for registration to facilitate approval, tracking, and issuing name tags and other registration material to registered participants (NACC will provide the database on registration of participants including details on status of payment of registration fees).
- Provide any feedback to registered conference participants, speakers and facilitators as guided by the Planning Committee.
- Train and coordinate the activities of volunteers to assist with confirming participant registration, ushering, and distribute conference materials (Volunteers will be provided by NACC)
- Prepare all the materials to be provided to participants during registration for the conference (All the materials will be provided by NACC).
- Provide and set up poster boards to be used for Poster Presentations.

Communication

- Review the Conference's Communication Plan, make recommendations for revision of the plan and work with NACC's Communication Division to execute the revised plan so as to optimize resources for wider reach.
- Organize and execute the pre-conference media briefing workshop in liaison with NACC's Communication Division and the Conference Planning Committee

Venue Management

- In collaboration with the Conference Planning Committee, brand the conference venue, stage design (screens, PA system/sound, lighting, décor) in accordance with NACC branding guidelines. Conduct a dry-run to ensure that everything is working as planned.

Presentation Management

- Set up a centralized presentation management system that will ensure pre-loading of PowerPoint slides a day prior to each session

b. DURING THE CONFERENCE

Registration

- Conduct the registration process and provide registered participants with conference materials.
- Supervise the activities of all conference volunteers including assigning them daily duties accordingly e.g. manning the registration desks; ushering key guests/panellists/speakers; manning each session room and providing logistical support
- Manage daily sign-in and tracking of conference participants preferably, electronically and provide daily attendance reports
- In collaboration with NACC Finance Division, facilitate onsite registration and payment
- Facilitate completion of soft-copy certificates and distributing the same to registered participants electronically (e.g. via USB flash drives)
- In close consultation with NACC and the Planning Committee, handle all protocol matters.

Communication

- Organize and execute any media briefing workshops in liaison with NACC's Communication Division and the Conference Planning Committee
- Supervise the activities of the videographer/photographer to ensure adequate capture of all conference proceedings including live and online streaming to a wider audience in liaison with NACC Communication and MIS Divisions
- Provide continuous social media updates as outlined in the revised communication plan and in liaison with NACC Communication Division
- In close consultation with NACC's Communication Division and the Conference Planning Committee, organize regular media briefing in line with the Communication Plan.
- Provide Centralised Information Service to all participants, speakers and facilitators on all sessions and venues and any other relevant information.

Venue Management

- Prepare the venue for all scheduled sessions including determining the appropriate sitting arrangements; ensuring appropriate functioning of audio-visual (AV) equipment provided at the venue as well as providing back-up AV/electricity equipment in case of power failure
- Provide appropriate signage to ensure free flow of participants in the different session rooms including coordinating the activities of ushers/volunteers.
- Making appropriate preparations for the various ceremonies (opening, awards and closing), in consultation with the Planning Committee.

Presentation Management

- Manage presentations including liaising with presenters to receive and pre-loading PowerPoint slides to a centralized system prior to each session (all presentations to be captured at least a day prior to the day of presentation); advancing slides during presentations (provide the necessary equipment e.g. laser pointers) and ensuring appropriate time-keeping; overseeing sign-language interpretation as appropriate. Also ensure flow-management during Q&A sessions (live and online).

- Supporting the work of all rapporteurs in consultation with the Chief Rapporteur, including providing them with necessary materials/stationary and collating summary session reports to ensure a summary of the proceedings is shared widely.

c. AFTER THE CONFERENCE

- Submit a final report on the conduct of the conference with regards to logistics, communication and planning including a final list of conference participants by day and session as well as coffee-table photo publication and edited video of the conference proceedings
- Provide raw data files/data bases and reports; presentations and posters; and all unutilised conference materials supported by a reconciliation report to NACC Conference Planning Committee and clean up and return the conference venue to its initial state

6. KEY COMPETENCIES AND EXPERIENCE REQUIRED

The Conference Manager is expected to be a registered firm/company that is legally allowed to conduct business with Government of Kenya entities. Required competencies and qualifications:

- a. The firm should demonstrated experience organizing and managing large conferences for at least ten (10) years; with at least two (2) national/international conferences of at least five hundred (500) participants having been conducted in the last three (3) years preferably in the area of scientific research.
