SECTION II - INFORMATION TO CONSULTANTS

2.1 Introduction

- 2.1.1 The National AIDS Control Council will select an individual consultant among those invited to submit proposals or those who respond to the invitation for proposals in accordance with the method of selection detailed under this section and consistent with the regulations.
- 2.1.2 The consultants are invited to submit a technical proposal and a financial proposal for consulting services required for the assignment stated in the letter of invitation (Section I)
- 2.1.3 In the assignment where the procuring entity intends to apply standard conditions of engagement and scales of fees for professional services, which scale of fees will have been approved by a relevant authority, a technical proposal only may be invited and submitted by the consultants. In such a case the highest ranked individual consultant in the technical proposals shall be invited to negotiate a contract on the basis of the set scale of fees. The technical proposals will be the basis for contract negotiations and ultimately for a signed contract with the selected individual consultant.
- 2.1.4 The consultants must familiarize themselves with local conditions as regards the assignment and take them into account in preparing their proposals. To obtain adequate information on the assignment and on the local conditions, consultants are encouraged to liaise with the procuring entity regarding any information that they may require before submitting a proposal.
- 2.1.5 The client will provide the inputs and services specified in the special conditions of contract needed to assist the individual consultant to carry out the assignment.
- 2.1.6 The cost of preparing the proposal and negotiating the contract including any visit to the procuring entity are not reimbursable as a direct cost of the assignment. The procuring entity is not bound to accept any of the proposals submitted.
- 2.1.7 The procuring entity's employees, committee members, board members and their relative (spouse and children) are not eligible to participate in the tender.

2.2 Clarification and amendment to the RFP documents

- 2.2.1 Individual consultant may request clarification of any of the RFP documents not later than Seven (7) days before the deadline for the submission of the proposals. Any request for clarification must be sent in writing by post, fax or email to the procuring entity's address indicated in the special conditions of contract. The procuring entity will respond by post, fax or email to such requests and will send written copies of the response (including an explanation of the query but without identifying the source of inquiry) to all individual consultants invited to submit proposals.

- 2.2.2 At any time before the deadline for submission of the proposals, the procuring entity may for any reason, either at its own initiative or in response to a clarification requested by an intended individual consultant amend the RFP. Any amendment shall be issued in writing, fax or email to all invited individual consultants and will be binding on them. The procuring entity may at its discretion extend the deadline for the submission of the proposals.

- 2.2.3 Clarification of tenders shall be requested by the tenderer to be received by the procuring entity not later than 7 days prior to the deadline for submission of tenders.

- 2.2.4 The procuring entity shall reply to and clarifications sought by the tenderer within 3 days of receiving the request to enable the tenderer to make timely submission of its tender.

2.3 Preparation of proposals

- 2.3.1 The individual consultant's proposal shall be written in English language.

- 2.3.2 In preparing the Technical proposal, the individual consultants are expected to examine the documents consisting the RFP in detail. Material deficiencies in providing the information requested may result in rejection of a proposal.

- 2.3.3 While preparing the Technical proposal, the individual consultant must give particulars attention to the following:

- (a) If an individual consultant considers that he/she does not have all the expertise required for the assignment he/she may suggest in the proposals other individual(s) who will assist in the assignment but they will not be party to the contract for the purpose of the performance of the assignment. An individual consultant will not propose other individual consultants invited to submit proposals for the assignment. Any individual consultant in contravention of this requirement shall automatically be disqualified.
- (b) For all the staff who will be involved in the exercise of the proposals to consultant must indicate their responsibility in the assignment and also the staff time as necessary.
- (c) The curriculum vitae (CV) of the staff proposed must be submitted with the proposal.

Moreover the Parties shall be responsible for any breach of this clause by their representatives, employees and/or agents.

Such Confidential Information shall so remain until such information becomes part of public domain through no fault or breach of this Agreement.

The terms of this Agreement shall also be held confidential by the Parties.

16. Force Majeure

Neither Party shall be liable for the failure to perform any of its obligations under this Agreement as a result of the occurrence of a Force Majeure event or situation which for the purposes of this Agreement means any event or situation which makes it impossible for either party to perform its obligations and includes but is not limited to acts of God, national emergencies, prohibitive decisions of government or local authority, war or civil conflict.

In the event of a Force Majeure situation or event, the performance of the obligations of this Agreement shall be extended by the period of the Force Majeure situation or event provided it does not exceed thirty (30) days.

In the event that the Force Majeure situation or event continues for a period of thirty (30) days or more either party shall be entitled to terminate this Agreement forthwith by written notice to the other Party.

17. Resolution of Disputes

The NACC and tenderer shall make every effort to resolve amicably by direct informal negotiation any disagreement or dispute arising between them under or in connection with the contract.

If, after thirty (30) days from the commencement of such informal negotiations both parties have been unable to resolve amicably a contract dispute, any such dispute or difference between the Parties relating to the rights or obligations of the Parties under this Agreement shall be referred to and finally determined by arbitration in Nairobi. The Parties shall agree on an arbitrator. If the Parties cannot agree on an arbitrator within 21 (twenty one) days of such notice being served, either Party may apply in writing (with a copy to the other Party) to the Chairman for the time being of the Chartered Institute of Arbitrators, Kenya Branch to appoint an arbitrator. Both parties shall be given the opportunity to make representations to the arbitrator.

In all cases the arbitrator shall be instructed to respond with his/her written decision sent to both parties at the same time, as soon as reasonably practicable and in any event, within thirty(30) days of the referral. The arbitration shall be conducted in English Language. No arbitrator shall be related or employed by or have any material business relationship with either Party. This Clause shall not preclude the making of any application to court for injunctive relief or for the enforcement of such award of the arbitrator.
